RESEARCH PROJECT ENGINEER OPEN POSITION

Engineer sought for participation in the working group of the COMPASS project (Communications and Signal Processing in Adverse Scenarios) TEC2013-47020-C2-2-R financed by: Ministerio de Economía y Competitividad (Spanish National Research Plan)

Project description available at: http://spcom.upc.edu
Duration (tentative): until December 31st, 2016.

Roles:
- Software development and simulation of communication systems and signal processing schemes for the scenarios envisaged in the project.
- Collaboration in research papers.

Conditions:
- under UPC contract.

Requirements (minimum):
- Master's degree (Telecommunications Engineering or Electrical Engineering with specialization in Telecommunications).
- Spanish or EU nationality.
- Programming skills: Matlab, C/C++
- Good grades in project related areas. An official certificate with subjects and qualifications is required.
- Candidates will be interviewed.
- CV and references to be provided.

Contact:
Dr. Josep Sala – Associate Professor
E-mail: josep.sala@upc.edu
Signal Processing and Communications Research Group (SPCOM)
Dpt. of Signal Theory and Communications
c/ Jordi Girona 1-3, D5-114b, Campus Nord UPC
08034 Barcelona, Spain.